Members of the Various Councils in the State Attend the First Meeting-They Will be in Session Several Days.

The eleventh session of the Grand Council of Royal Arcanum met last night at 8 o'clock in Lee Camp Hall, which was kindly tendered by McCarthy Council, The session will probably last two or three days, as there is a vast amount of business to be transacted, such as advancing certain officials, and filling vacancies caused by promotion and retirement.

General supreme officers are present to iritiate all new officers who may be elected, and from present prospects the election to various offices will be a very warm contest, as the friends of each can-didate are working hard for their man.

The membership the past year shows a net increase of 419 members, the actual number of initiations being 534.

The list of suspensions has increased, while the number of deaths was exactly the same. The total number of members is 3,978.

Mr. Lovenstein's report embodies a great deat that will be of great terrors.

The membership the past year shows a deal that will be of much interest to all members of the order. Among other things, he mentioned his official visits to the various councils of the State, in which in each instance, he was most cordially received, and he feels convinced that nothing more tends to stimulate the officers and members than these annual visitations.

In speaking of the order, Mr. Loven-stein heartily concurs with the grand re-gent, that a paid deputy be employed in the near future to institute councils throughout the State, and furthermore, he desires to call the attention of the Grand Council to the yaughbu services resident ouncil to the valuable services rendered by Grand Regent Irvine, in taking up the work left by his worthy predecessor, and carrying the banner aloft, traversing the entire State, speaking words of kind ad-vice and encouragement to weak buncils.
